THANK YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I hope to see you today (Sunday) after the Masses at our Ice Cream Social which is our Ministries Fair. What an opportunity for us to get together for some fun and to see what is happening here at Holy Trinity. See you in the grassy area between the school and rectory. You also have an opportunity to go through Trinity Center and to see what it looks like and maybe you might want to help and sell the Center to someone who would like to rent the space from us. The parish is in need of tenant/tenants since losing the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and the rental income from them.

God bless Miss Manners. That dear lady is always willing to help us understand the complexities of human interaction. What obligations come our way when others are kind to us? How do we repay the kindness others have shown us? How long do I have to send a "thank you" note? Miss Manners is always the first to admit that most of etiquette is just the application of that increasingly uncommon virtue, common sense. And what do we find in today's gospel but Jesus being sensible! "Whenever you give a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or brothers or relatives or wealthy neighbors. They might invite you in return and thus repay you. No, when you have a reception, invite beggars and the crippled, the lame and the blind. You should be pleased that they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid in the resurrection of the just." True generosity is not given to build up the "favors owed to me" account. True generosity expects no repayment. (But God has never been known to forget to send a "thank you" note.)

"Nothing could be more foreign to the American experience than legalized abortion. It is inconsistent with our national character, with our national purpose, with all that we've done, and with everything we hope to be." Speech at Notre Dame by the late Pennsylvania Governor Robert Casey

Prayers Intentions of our Holy Father Benedict XVI

The Word of God as Incentive for Social Development:

That the proclamation of the Word of God may renew people's hearts, encouraging them to work toward authentic social progress.

End of War: That by opening our hearts to love we may put an end to wars and conflicts which continue to bloody our world.

Continued blessings to you and your families this coming week!
Fr. Rick

WE DO OUR PART TO BE GOOD STEWARDS OF GOD'S GREEN EARTH

RECYCLING is an ongoing project here at Holy Trinity. Aluminum beverage cans can be brought to church with you on the weekend or dropped by the rectory garage during the week. Likewise, paper and magazines can be placed in the bins at the end of Bainbridge Street. Spent batteries can be dropped off in the containers in the Church vestibule for recycling.

If you have hazardous waste (paint cans, stains, thinners, pesticides and batteries) and you can't get them to the waste disposal plant, we have two willing volunteers that will pick them up from your home and dispose of them properly at the plant for you. Call Ron Bird (253-2344) or Barb Gilbert (673-4616). This is just one more way to be good stewards of God's green earth

MEMORABILIA FROM HOLY TRINITY

We are still collecting memorabilia from Holy Trinity School and Church to put on display in church in honor of our 150th celebration. If you have something you think would be of interest to others, please call Judi at 228-1223 or email ht_busmgr@sbcglobal.net. Items will be returned to you after the display is removed.

In 1928 a room at Good Samaritan Hospital and a Seminary burse was established in memory of our first pastor, Fr. Joseph Goetz. The burse has long since been used up, but I wonder is the room still there at Good Samaritan?

SAVE THE DATE – 10-10-10 FOR THE FAMILY ROSARY RALLY!

CRAFT EVENINGS – We need help to make the craft booth this year a big success. Our numbers have diminished and we have a lot of projects to do over the next couple of months. Everyone is welcome – men, women, teens can join with us. We meet in Trinity Center kitchen from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Please bring your scissors and a large needle if you like to sew, if not we have other projects you can work on. If anyone has some 4 x 4" ceramic tiles that they can part with, we need about 36 for a project.

BIBLE STUDY BOOKS ARE IN!

If you wish to pick up your copy of "Women of the Old Testament", please email (pa_holytrinity@yahoo.com) or call (228-1223) Mary and arrange a time. Otherwise, the books will be available at the first sessions (Sunday, September 12 at 10:15 a.m. and Thursday, September 16 at 7:00 p.m.).

Bible Study will cost $10 a person this year (to help with books and media), but please know that you are welcome even without this donation. This year we will be meeting in the PARISH OFFICES (Rectory) for our sessions.

AND, it is NOT too late to join us! Just call or email Mary and let her know you are coming

Attention all Catechists, Catholic School Teachers, RCIA teams, and anyone who engages in Faith Formation

The Dayton Deanery Evangelization Team is offering an evening of enrichment for catechists with Dr. Michael Carotta, nationally known speaker and catechist. Dr. Carotta is presenting "Fishing the River" on Thursday, September 9 at St. Charles Borromeo Church in Kettering from 6:45 – 9:00 p.m. The event, sponsored by the Dayton Deanery Evangelization Team, is open to catechists, religion teachers, faith formation ministers, RCIA teams, and Adult Faith Formation teams. Registration is not required. A freewill offering will be taken to help support the event. For additional information, please contact Brenda Tibbits at St. Charles parish, 434-6081.

Choir Rehearsals will begin anew on Wednesday, Sept. 29th at 7:00 P.M. New members of any age are welcome. We will be preparing for our usual weekly services, plus our 150th grand celebration of the dedication of Holy Trinity Church. All voice ranges are welcome and this year we are also looking for instrumentalists from the parish to assist us in adding to the worship services. If you are interested, but not sure, give Tom Aldridge call (286-0427), or come to the choir loft after any service for information on how you can take part.

SUNDAE SUNDAY!!

Join with us after the Masses today. It is absolutely never too early in the day to have ice cream!

HOLY TRINITY will be hosting the lunch at St. Paul Lutheran on Wednesday September 1 so once again, we are doing a "shout out" for homemade cookies to top off the meal. Cookies can be dropped off here at the rectory on Monday and Tuesday between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. or before 10:00 a.m. on the 1st of September. Thanks to all you wonderful cookie bakers out there.

We also need help with the actual preparation and serving on the 1st. If you can help, please call Doris Klosterman at 275-7618.

Sadly, we will be losing our "can commissioner" as of October 1. Jerry Schenking has been taking our beverage cans to the recycling center for twenty years and feels it is time for someone else to take over this mission for Holy Trinity. If you would be interested in helping us continue to recycle, please call Judi for the particulars. Thank you Jerry, for your long and faithful service to Holy Trinity!
